

UMEÅ UNIVERSITY

Copyrights transfer agreement between (contributor) and Umeå

University (recipient)

Right of use to selected, high resolution photographs/illustrations

– itemized in appendix 1 (list/contact sheet)

The contributor hereby gives Umeå University the non-exclusive right to use the itemized photographs for an unlimited period for the purpose identified in appendix 1. This use covers print and digital productions as well as all comparable causes of publishing in the purpose of providing information, marketing and web publishing on all Umeå University web pages as well as on all university channels in social media.

Umeå University has the right to grant the right to use the images to the student unions and to partners, for example other universities and Umeå municipality (Umeå kommun) in materials for joint initiatives, such as student recruitment campaigns. The university may also use the images as press images for further use in connection with editorial publication. Besides what is stated above, the university may not resell or lease the images to third parties.

Umeå University has the right to crop images for normal editing, for instance, but not limited to, adjusting photographs to suit the university's web format. All photographs may be stored in the university's internal image data bank/archive.

Copyright

Copyright to the photographs remain with the originator and/or the contributor, without restrictions as regards to sale and other forms of transfer. In the use of the photographs, credit should be given to the originator (photographer) in connection to the photograph whenever this is possible due to technical restrictions.

I hereby give Umeå University the right to use the photographs as described above and guarantee that I have the rights to give such right of use as described above to Umeå University.
