

Welcome to Umeå University!

I'm very pleased that you have chosen to work at Umeå University, and sincerely hope you will like it here. All of us working with research, education, technology, administration and service have an important role in the joint success of the university.

Umeå University is an exciting and varying workplace where no day resembles the other. You become a part of a creative work environment with an atmosphere characterised by closeness between disciplines, which stimulates new and exciting collaborations. The cohesive environment enables a strong sense of community and a dynamic and open culture in which we rejoice in the success of others. We call it the Umeå University spirit.

We are an international organisation with huge multitude where you are given good opportunities for professional development. As an employee, and together with our students, you enrich society and play a valuable role in providing northern Sweden, Sweden and the world with innovations and a well-educated workforce.

To learn more about our work culture and activities, I welcome you to our institution-wide introductory programme. This programme provides a good start and opportunities to quickly get into your work and the community.
